

1. IAASA

The Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA) is the independent body in Ireland responsible for the:

- examination and enforcement of certain listed entities' periodic financial reporting;
- oversight of the Recognised Accountancy Bodies' functions in respect of statutory auditors and supervision of the regulatory functions of the Prescribed Accountancy Bodies;
- adoption of standards on auditing, professional ethics and internal quality control; and
- the inspection and promotion of improvements in the quality of auditing of Public Interest Entities.

IAASA is a state body established in 2006 and carries out its functions under the provisions of the Companies Act 2014. As such, its employees are public servants.

2. Post overview

The Administrative Officer will assist the Corporate Service Manager in the efficient delivery of the Authority's administrative support function.

3. Essential requirements

Candidates will have a minimum of two years' experience in a similar role. While not essential, familiarity with public sector processes and procedures would be an advantage.

The successful candidate will also be able to demonstrate:

- the ability to work as part of a team;
- a logical approach to task management; and
- a proficiency in the use of ICT, particularly experience in the use of Microsoft Outlook, Word and Excel.

4. Indicative description of principal duties and responsibilities

A detailed job description is set out in Appendix I. As a member of a small team, duties will be wide and varied. The key areas of responsibility include:

- responsibility for travel management;
- maintenance of registers and spreadsheet records;
- providing a reception service for telephone and personal callers;
- meeting room management, and preparation for meetings;
- management of supplies (stationery, ICT etc.) and assistance in smaller procurements;
- other duties as they arise appropriate to the role of Administrative Officer.

The foregoing is indicative only and duties may be altered from time to time, as considered necessary or otherwise appropriate, at the discretion of the Authority.

5. Salary

This is a permanent position and the salary scale for new entrants to the public service is:

€23,572 €25,114 €25,507 €26,270 €27,398 €28,523 €29,649 €30,470 €31,552

¹ Following 3 years on the maximum

² Following 6 years on the maximum

Increments, subject to satisfactory performance, may be awarded annually.

The salary on commencement for new entrants will be €23,572, and this is not negotiable. Alternative arrangements may apply to serving public servants. The rate of total remuneration may be adjusted from time to time in accordance with government pay policy as applying to public servants generally.

6. Other terms of employment

- 6.1. Superannuation: All IAASA employees will be members of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme, unless they were public servants not more than 26 weeks before the commencement, or on a career break or secondment. Full details on the Scheme and exceptions are available at <http://per.gov.ie/single-scheme>. If you are not eligible to join the Single Public Service Pension Scheme, you will be a member of the IAASA Employee and Employees' Spouses, Civil Partners & Children's Superannuation Schemes. In either case, contributions³ are deductible at the rate of 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration and 3% of pensionable remuneration. Information on these Schemes will be forwarded to you on request.
- 6.2. Location: The role is based in Naas.
- 6.3. Annual Leave: The annual leave allowance is as applicable to a civil service Administrative Officer, currently 22 days, rising to 23, 24, 25 and 26 days after five, ten, twelve and fourteen years respectively. This is in addition to statutory public holidays and Good Friday.
- 6.4. Continuing Professional Development: IAASA supports participation in relevant training and professional development courses related to an employee's business activities.

7. Application procedure

Persons interested in this role should complete the application form and send it together with a curriculum vitae, to:
