

Team Lead - Audit Standards Post advertised: May 2017

1. IAASA

The Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority ('IAASA') is the independent body in Ireland responsible for, amongst other matters, the:

- a) inspection and promotion of improvements in the quality of auditing of Public Interest Entities ('PIEs');
- b) examination and enforcement of certain listed entities' periodic financial reporting;
- c) supervision of the regulatory functions of the Prescribed Accountancy Bodies; and
- d) adoption of standards on auditing, professional ethics and internal quality control ('the Auditing Framework').

IAASA is a state body established in 2006 and carries out its functions under the provisions of the Companies Act 2014. As such, its employees are public servants.

2. Post overview

IAASA is responsible for the adoption of the Auditing Framework in Ireland since June 2016. Reporting to Head of Unit, this post is a new position required to establish the Standards Team and develop processes and procedures required for maintenance and development of the Auditing Framework in Ireland going forward.

3. Essential requirements

Successful candidates will be qualified accountants and be able to demonstrate:

- substantial experience either in audit or a technical role. Experience at a large audit firm or similar preferred;
- excellent knowledge of International Standards on Auditing;
- proven ability to work effectively with others to achieve a common task and strong teamwork ethic;
- confidence and ability to engage with and, where appropriate, challenge senior stakeholders; and
- strong communication skills, both oral and written.

Previous experience in establishing a unit will be an advantage.

4. Indicative description of principal duties and responsibilities

Such duties and responsibilities include:

- researching technical issues and current market issues affecting auditing;
- drafting new standards, amendments to existing standards and guidance;
- establishing and managing appropriate technical and/or stakeholder committees;
- participating in various international fora relevant to the Auditing Framework;
- engaging with peers and stakeholders;
- managing licensing relationships;
- drafting policies and board papers;
- managing and participating in advocacy initiatives; and
- managing and participating in initiatives aimed at improving audit quality.

Team Lead - Audit Standards Post advertised: May 2017

This outline is indicative only and duties may be altered from time to time, as considered necessary or otherwise appropriate, at the discretion of the Head of Unit or the Chief Executive. The role is based in Naas. There may also be periodic travel and stays overseas.

5. Salary

This is a permanent position and the salary on commencement for *new entrants*¹ to the public service is €81,767, rising annually following each year's satisfactory performance on the following scale:

€81,767; €85,091; €88,392; €91,716; €94,521(Max); €97,428²; €100,333³.

Increments (other than long service increments), subject to satisfactory performance, may be awarded annually.

Alternative arrangements may apply to serving public servants. The rate of total remuneration may be adjusted from time to time in accordance with government pay policy as applying to public servants generally.

6. Other terms of employment

- 6.1. Superannuation: The successful candidate will be a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme unless s/he was a public servant in the 26 weeks prior to being offered the contract. Scheme membership, contributions and benefits are in accordance with terms set down by the Minister for Public Expenditure & Reform, and are dependent on personal circumstances on recruitment.
- 6.2. Location: The role is based in Naas, but will entail engagement on a periodic basis with stakeholders based in Dublin and overseas. Travel and subsistence allowances are paid in accordance with rates applicable to civil servants.
- 6.3. Annual Leave: The annual leave allowance is as applicable to a civil service Principal Officer, currently 30 days. This is in addition to statutory public holidays and Good Friday.
- 6.4. Professional subscriptions and Continuing Professional Development ('CPD'): IAASA reimburses the annual membership subscription to the incumbent's principal accountancy body, and all mandatory CPD. IAASA also supports participation in relevant training and professional development courses related to an employee's business activities including, but not limited to mandatory CPD activities.

7. Application procedure

Persons interested in this role should send a curriculum vitae together with a brief covering letter setting out how they meet the above requirements, to:
