

Making a complaint to IAASA

IAASA is responsible for supervising how the prescribed accountancy bodies (PABs) regulate and monitor their members. IAASA may take action against a PAB where it appears that they have failed to comply with the law or the approved procedures. IAASA is also responsible for complaints relating to the audit of a Public Interest Entity (PIE), please contact us here.

PABs are responsible for the investigation of complaints relating to their members, and are required to process complaints in accordance with procedures approved by IAASA. If at the conclusion of a PAB's complaint process, you are of the view that the PAB has not followed its investigation and disciplinary procedures correctly, then please contact us here.

Is the person or firm you are complaining about a member of a Prescribed Accountancy Body (PAB)?

Yes

Have you contacted the PAB?

Yes

On completion of the PAB complaints process, if you are not satisfied that approved procedures have been followed, you can contact IAASA, by clicking here.

No

Contact the PAB - You can find their website by clicking here.

No

IAASA does not have a role. You may wish to seek legal advice

Don't Know?

Ask your accountant which PAB they are a member of and check PAB's membership directories by clicking here.

No

IAASA does not have a role. You may wish to seek legal advice

Yes

Contact the PAB - You can find their website by clicking here.